

TEMPLE BETH SHOLOM

High Holy Days 2022 / 5783

REGISTRATION PACKET

Now that summer has arrived, it is time to get ready for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Rabbi Felipe Goodman, Assistant Rabbi Jonathan Hodson, and D.J. Sinai are organizing and preparing for the services. Jennifer Zukowski and Rabbi Jonathan Hodson are organizing and preparing for youth services and children's activities. Honors are being assigned, tickets will be printed and ushers are being recruited. Over the years, we (at TBS) have developed our own customs that have truly helped our services to be personal, rewarding and enjoyable. The following are reminders of some of these.

Security, as always, remains an important concern. This year we will be instituting a number of new security measures both visible and covert for the safety of the congregation. Upon entrance to the Temple, Members may be wanded with metal detectors as part of our visible security process. Please plan accordingly. Please ensure that you, your family and your guests have tickets and photo ID when arriving at services because they will be checked. Tickets are non-transferable. There will be no admission to the building without a ticket. To park on property, a current parking sticker must be displayed.

In the past, citations were issued by Metro for parking on side streets too close to residential driveways. Please park in the designated street sections if the parking lot is full. Additional handicapped parking spots will be designated in our lot, as always, it will be first come, first served. Please inform us if you possess a Nevada Handicap Permit.

Entrance to the sanctuary for services is only through the doors leading to the Social Halls. Please cooperate with our ushers and respect their instructions for when you should or should not enter during services. Please do not enter or leave when the congregation is standing for the Amidah, Hineni or during the Rabbi's sermon.

Appropriate dress is required to be on the Bimah for your honor. Ladies' arms must be covered; jacket and tie for men. No jeans or shorts.

All cell phones must be OFF or on VIBRATE (if physician). There is no texting in the building on High Holy Days.

If you have an honor during the services, please RSVP in advance to Nancey at extension 104, please arrive at least 30 minutes ahead of time and let one of our honor distributors know you are present. Please sit in your assigned seat enabling our volunteers to easily locate you.

Single strollers will be permitted, provided the parent selects an outside aisle seat in the social halls.

High Holy Day services at Temple Beth Sholom are truly a very special time for all of us. It is a wonderful opportunity for our extended family to see and catch up with each other. More importantly, it is a time for us all to reflect on the past year and look to the future. Thank you in advance for helping us all enjoy this very special time of year. We sincerely hope that 5783 will be a happy and rewarding year for you, your families and friends, and for Temple Beth Sholom.

Bill Mason, President

Age-appropriate, creative and fun activities are provided at a variety of times throughout High Holy Days. The Shofar will be blown for the children on Rosh Hashanah Day 1. Children will receive a light snack on Rosh Hashanah Day 1 and Day 2, and a light lunch on Yom Kippur. Please remember, no outside food is allowed to be brought into the building.

If your child is in diapers, please provide two diapers with your child's name written on the diaper for each session and a change of clothes. Any other special items your child needs should be clearly marked with your child's name.

*Registration is required in advance due to limited space and ratios.

CHILDREN'S PROGRAM: KINDERGARTEN - GRADE 5

DAVID FRIEDMAN & ABBIE FRIEDMAN FAMILY PAVILION

Through interactive services the children will understand that the High Holy Days are a time to remember, reflect, and renew our lives. Join Rabbi Hodson and Sonia Elkisch in a fun and interactive puppet service specifically designed for the holidays. Your children will sing along as we explore classic tunes and themes as well as new melodies and games.

Services for K-5th grade will be held on Rosh Hashanah Day 1 and Yom Kippur. Children will be divided into two groups; Kindergarten through 2nd grade and 3rd grade through 5th grade. Students will rotate between a children's worship service, games, drama, music and crafts. Please note: some activities will consist of supervised childcare, but do not have educational programming.

Children participating will receive a light snack on Rosh Hashanah Day 1 and Day 2, and a light lunch on Yom Kippur. Please remember, no outside food is allowed to be brought into the building.

Children must be picked-up by an adult 16-years or older and present the ticket stub in order to be dismissed. If the adult service runs late, we will supervise children in their final activity until you pick them up. Students will not be permitted to come in and out of the programming more than once.

*Registration is required in advance due to limited space and ratios.
