SHAVUOT: THE STILL, SMALL VOICE OF SINAI

BY RABBI FELIPE GOODMAN

Each year, as spring gives way to summer and our minds begin to drift toward family vacations, school breaks, and lighter routines, there arrives a holiday on the Jewish calendar that too often slips under the radar. Shavuot—a festival of extraordinary spiritual power and historical consequence—can feel like the forgotten holy day. It has no dramatic rituals like building a sukkah or cleaning chametz. There are no candles to light for eight nights or lulav to shake. And yet, Shavuot lies at the very heart of our Jewish identity.

Shavuot is one of the Shalosh Regalim, the three ancient pilgrimage festivals alongside Pesach and Sukkot. In Temple times, Jews from across the Land of Israel and beyond would make their way to Jerusalem, bringing offerings and gratitude to God. Pesach celebrates our physical liberation from slavery. Sukkot reminds us of our spiritual vulnerability and reliance on God. But Shavuot—Zman Matan Torateinu, the time of the giving of our Torah—is when we received our mission.

According to rabbinic tradition, all souls of all generations stood together at Mount Sinai. We were there—our great-grandparents, our children, all of us. We heard the voice of God, and we accepted the covenant: to be a people of ethics, of justice, of holiness. And every year, we are given the opportunity to receive the Torah again, as if for the First time.

This is why the centerpiece of the Shavuot synagogue service is the public reading of the Ten Commandments. As we stand and listen to the words spoken at Sinai—"I am Adonai your God," "You shall not murder," "Honor your father and mother"—we are reminded that Judaism is not just a religion of beliefs, but a way of life rooted in covenant and conscience. The Torah is not simply a scroll on parchment; it is a living contract between heaven and earth.

But if Shavuot is so essential, why does it often go unnoticed?

Perhaps it's because it lacks the outward physicality of our other festivals. It arrives without warning—no buildup, no elaborate preparation. Perhaps it's the time of year: just as people begin to unplug and relax, Shavuot quietly enters with a whisper rather than a shout.

And yet, the stillness of Shavuot is precisely what makes it powerful. It invites us to listen not with our ears, but with our souls. That is why on the first night of Shavuot, we engage in Tikkun Leil Shavuot, the tradition of staying up all night to study Torah. Why all night? Because our ancestors, says the Midrash, overslept on the morning of the Revelation. We stay awake to show our eagerness, our love of Torah, our readiness to receive. There is something profoundly intimate about sitting in study...

Shavuot also contains Yizkor, the memorial prayer service in which we recall our loved ones. This moment of remembrance grounds the holiday in personal reflection. As we recall parents, spouses, siblings, and friends who shaped us, we sense that their spirits, too, stood at Sinai. We affirm that our relationship with Torah is not just historical—it is personal and generational.

To be chosen is not a statement of superiority; it is a declaration of responsibility. On Shavuot, we remember that we were chosen not for privilege, but for purpose. We were chosen to live lives of sacred obligation—to pursue justice, to care for the stranger, to sanctify time and space with meaning.

Let us not let Shavuot pass by unnoticed. Let us gather, study, remember, and celebrate. Let us stand again at Sinai—together—as if for the first time.

S Shalom Temple Members,
We are coming to the end of the fiscal year which means. ECC is wrapping up and we are getting ready for summer camp. This means the constant flow of young children bringing our campus to life continues without missing a beat. The end of the year also means the annual meeting which is scheduled for May 22, 2025. Hoping to see many of you there.

I wanted to thank Rabbi Goodman, D.J., Chef Rachel and all the other people who made the Seder the second night of Pesach so successful. The night was well executed and attended and was a fantastic night to spend with our fellow congregants.

As you can all see, the capital improvements to our aging building continued in full swing with the exterior painting, the lighting in the main sanctuary and carpeting on the Bimah that was all recently accomplished. We will have the carpet in the remainder of the main sanctuary accomplished by the end of May as the beautification process continues. We are making progress on the security system upgrades.

All of this has been coordinated with minimal to no interruption or disturbance to the daily business of the Temple. A huge accomplishment and kudos to all involved. And we are not resting, there are additional projects underway that we will report on once completed.

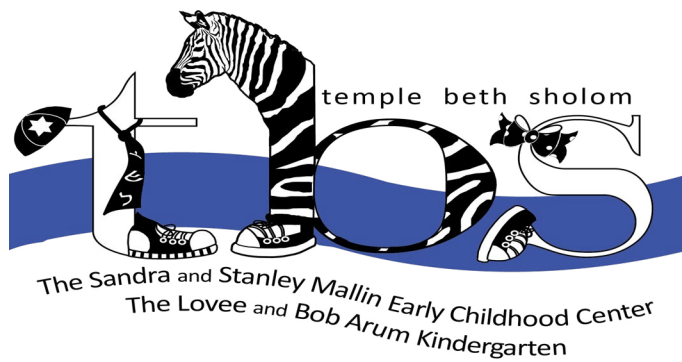

The first Friday night services throughout the year were electric with not only the Ruach Ensemble but with upwards of one hundred children joining us in prayer. Just because the children will be on vacation you can still join us for shabbat services throughout the summer.

Looking forward to seeing all of you at Temple Beth Shalom in the near future.

PRESCHOOL PASSOVER: LEARNING THROUGH STORY, SONG, AND SYMBOL

BY JENNIFER ZUKOWSKI
SCHOOL DIRECTOR

WThe Sandra & Stanley Mallin Early Childhood Center and The Lovee & Bob Arum Kindergarten at Temple Beth Sholom came together for a meaningful tradition—our annual mock Seder.

Held in the small social hall, approximately 80 preschool children, ages 3 to 5, participated in an interactive reenactment of the Passover Seder. Guided by our Hebrew specialist, Tatiana Musnikov, the children explored the traditional items on the Seder plate, chanted the Four Questions, tasted matzah, sipped grape juice, and more—learning the significance of each symbol through touch, taste, song, and storytelling.

Events like this allow our preschoolers to connect classroom learning with Jewish tradition, reinforcing core values of freedom, resilience, and community. It was more than just a reenactment—it was an educational and spiritual experience that honored the essence of Passover.

If you're interested in learning more about the Sandra & Stanley Mallin Early Childhood Center and The Lovee & Bob Arum Kindergarten at Temple Beth Sholom, please email preschool@bethsholomlv.org to schedule a tour.

DESTINATION: ISRAEL! A PRESCHOOL JOURNEY FOR YOM HA'ATZMAUT

To celebrate Yom Ha'atzmaut, our preschoolers embarked on a joyful, imaginative “trip” to Israel—without ever leaving the MPR! With passports in hand, the children boarded a pretend El Al plane and explored hands-on stations that brought Israeli culture to life.

They “milked” cows on a kibbutz, experimented with the buoyancy of the Dead Sea, built famous landmarks, and shopped in a vibrant mock Machane Yehuda Shuk. From art to science to dramatic play, each stop offered opportunities to learn through exploration and fun.

“This mock trip wasn’t just fun—it sparked curiosity and helped children connect with Israel in a meaningful, age-appropriate way,” shared curriculum specialist Daryl Grodin.

BUILDING BRIDGES TO JEWISH KNOWLEDGE AND IDENTITY TEMPLE BETH SHOLOM'S COMMITMENT TO JEWISH EDUCATION

At the heart of Temple Beth Sholom lies a profound belief that Jewish education is a lifelong journey, a vibrant tapestry woven through every stage of life. This deeply held value is powerfully embodied in our Judy & Ron Mack School of Religious Studies, a cornerstone of our community dedicated to providing enriching and engaging learning experiences for students in grades K – 7. From the youngest learners taking their first steps in Jewish discovery to teens seeking deeper understanding, our school fosters a love for Jewish tradition, culture, and values.

We are thrilled to expand our commitment to Jewish education by introducing Yad B'Yad, a brand-new teen program for students in grades 7 – 12. This full comprehensive teen program, which includes conversational Hebrew, begins on Sunday, September 07, from 9am – Noon. Teen TBS members as well as non-members throughout the greater southern Nevada community are invited to attend.

Recognizing the unique needs and evolving interests of teenagers, Yad B'Yad aims to create a dynamic and relevant space for teens to connect with their Jewish identity. This program promises to be a vital bridge, fostering meaningful relationships, exploring contemporary issues through a Jewish lens, and empowering teens to become active and informed members of our community.

The Religious School (grades K – 6) and Yad B'Yad (grades 7 – 12), understands that Jewish education is an investment in our future, ensuring the continuity and vibrancy of our traditions for generations to come.

It empowers individuals to live meaningful lives guided by Jewish values, to engage thoughtfully with the world around them, and to contribute to a strong and compassionate community.

You are cordially invited to join us for an informational session on Sunday, June 8th, at 10:00 am in the Temple Beth Sholom small chapel. This is a wonderful opportunity to learn about our curriculum and discover how our commitment to Jewish education can benefit your child or teen for the upcoming school year.

Temple Beth Sholom is building bridges and nurturing roots, ensuring that the light of Jewish learning shines brightly for all of our students and their families.

YOUTH

This past year has been an incredible one for our Kadima and USY chapter, filled with meaningful moments and continued growth for all. Jewish teens from all over the Las Vegas Valley have been participating in the city's fastest growing youth group, growing just this year from 101 to 126 - a true testament to the vibrant energy and welcoming spirit that has kept our youth group thriving. Year over year, we are continuing to build a strong foundation of Jewish engagement, leadership, and a whole lot of fun.

We kicked off the year with our annual Back-to-School Ice Cream Social on August 12, which brought returning members and new faces together for a sweet start to the year. From there, we dove into a full calendar of events that included teen favorites like the USY Disneyland trip in September, awesome outings at Crystal Palace Skating Center and Dave & Buster's, and our unforgettable Party Bus Scavenger Hunt in December. We also hold Lounge Nights every week while school is in session, as well as a monthly Shabbat dinner where we come together to welcome Shabbat as one big youth family.

Some other highlights throughout the year included USY Shabbaton hosted at Temple Beth Sholom of East Valley, our Kadima Kinnus weekend at Camp Stein in March, and the powerful tikkun olam project Jr. USY Calico Basin clean-up in April. Senior USY's Mystery Road Trip to Bearizona and Atomic Golf night offered exclusive bonding experiences for our older teens, while Kadima enjoyed creative outings like Flip N' Out, Discovery Children's Museum, and movie parties made just for them.

As we finish the school year, we don't only celebrate the over 50 unique events we had this year (not including lounge nights), but the leadership and friendships that have grown. From elections to board meetings to running our most successful Purim Carnival, our teens have stepped up, taken ownership, and helped shape a program that reflects their own Jewish values. Our chapter was even premiered in the USCJ newsletter, noting the large donation we made to the USCJ Disaster Relief Fund, assisting those recovering from the wildfires in Southern California. Whether we were bowling, taking a study break from finals at Bruster's, or making a difference in the world around us, we did it together as a thriving Jewish youth group.

Looking towards next school year, we are excited to welcome new staff and new friends to our Kadima & USY family, continuing the growth narrative to make our youth department the most exciting, engaging, and inspiring youth program in Las Vegas. We always have room for more friends! For more information, please email djsinai@bethsholomlv.org.

WOMEN'S LEAGUE

By Carrie Zeidman | Women's League President

We've been very busy for the last couple of months!

We started our March with a the WLTBS Girl's Night Out crew attending Frank Marino's "Divas, Drag & Drinks" at the Virgin Hotel. It was a rowdy and entertaining evening of female impersonators bringing iconic divas to life on stage.

On April 6th the women of TBS got together to learn self-defense at Victory Martial Arts. About 15 Women's League members had a great time learning new tips and tricks for defending themselves in all kinds of situations. Everyone left with valuable safety skills and a new-found confidence.

On Monday, April 28th we had the second of our popular resin craft nights. Approximately 20 people attended the "Mom & Me Craft Night" and had a great time together making beautiful jewelry boxes and vases out of resin and dried flowers.

On April 30th we voted in our new board slate for the coming year. Congratulations to all the incoming board members! The election meeting was followed by an informative and always entertaining Q&A with our own Dr. Daliah Wachs. Along with Dr. Daliah, pizza and drinks were enjoyed by all!

Need something new to read this summer? Coming up on May 29th is our "Beach Book Swap & Puzzles Too" at TBS. Bring your best books and puzzles and swap them for something new to enjoy! Light snacks will also be available, and the best part...it's free for Women's League members. Watch your email for the invitation and RSVP link.

On April 27th we had a lovely brunch to celebrate and thank our Women's League Donors. Besides the delicious food, we honored three of our most active members. Bonnie Bloss, Leona Cohen, and Brenda Katz were given awards for their contributions to our Women's League Sisterhood. Kol Kavod ladies!!

Thank you to everyone that made our events a success! We have more fun coming up. Watch your email for information and invitations and join us!

ALEXANDER M. LURIE MAY 17TH, 2025

For my Bar Mitzvah project, I've decided to swim 11,800 meters — that's 200 meters for each of the 59 hostages still being held by Hamas. 12 KILOMETERS!!

This isn't just a swim. It's my way of standing with the people of Israel, with the hostages and their families, and with the soldiers who are doing everything they can to bring them home.

I chose to dedicate my project to Friends of the Israel Defense Forces (FIDF) because they support the real heroes — the soldiers who protect Israel and the Jewish people. FIDF helps them with everything from mental health support and financial aid to caring for wounded soldiers and families of the fallen.

Swimming NEARLY 12 KILOMETERS will be hard. But it's nothing compared to what the hostages are going through. I want to do something meaningful to show them they're not forgotten — and to raise money to help the soldiers who are fighting for their freedom. Please support my swim and donate to FIDF.

Every dollar makes a difference.

Every meter I swim is for them.

Thank you so much for standing with me.

DANIEL M. SCHWARTZ MAY 24TH, 2025

Daniel Miles will be called to the Torah on May 24 to become a Bar Mitzvah. He is the son of Adam and Caline Schwartz, brother to Reuben and Benjamin. Daniel attends The Adelson School where he is an honors student in the 7th grade. In addition to enjoying his studies, he is also a member of the Adelson Flag Football and Swim teams. When not at school, Daniel can be seen hanging out with his brothers and friends listening to music, playing video games and following his 2 favorite teams, the Baltimore Orioles and Ravens. Daniel's Mitzvah Project is volunteering at Aishel Avraham. Aishel Avraham is a local non-profit that provides weekly Shabbat meal baskets, holiday packages and other basic necessities to Las Vegas Jewish families who are in need. Please feel free to donate to this worthwhile charity. Daniel is looking forward to sharing this special day with his family, friends and Temple Beth Sholom community.

HAILEY CUTHBERT JUNE 14TH, 2025

Hailey will become a bat mitzvah on June 14, 2025. In between attending the 7th grade at Amplus Academy and her many hours a week of dance classes, she has been working hard for this honor.

Hailey is known by all those around her as one of the most caring people they have met. She is always looking for ways to help and loves when she can volunteer or support others.

For her bat mitzvah project, she has partnered with Candlelighters Childhood Cancer Foundation to raise funds for the build out of new dedicated space for teens and their siblings dealing with cancer. Like many of us, Hailey can't imagine how kids her age deal with the unimaginable and if she can be part of creating a space for them to gain support and access healing resources, she knew this was the perfect project for her.

SARAH & RACHEL SHAFFER MARCH 29TH, 2025

Rachel Faye Shaffer and Sarah Ruth Shaffer were called to the Torah on March 29, 2025 at Temple Beth Sholom. Rache and Sarah are daughters of Brian and Vered Shaffer. Rachel and Sarah have an older sister, Samantha Shaffer.

Rachel and Sarah are both huge soccer fans, both playing soccer since they were 6 years old. Rachel plays forward and Sarah plays defense for a local Las Vegas recreational league soccer team, with both of their parents volunteering to coach the soccer team over the years. Additionally, both girls have been in Girl Scouts since they were in kindergarten. Throughout their girl scout years, the Shaffers have supported numerous volunteering efforts. Their most memorable effort was when they shipped over 800 children books to a city in the African country of Gambia because they learned that the schools did not have any books. These books were used to create a traveling library for elementary school kids in Gambia. Rachel is a talented artist and Sarah is a huge animal lover. Rachel would like to pursue a career a an emergency room doctor and Sarah would like to be a lawyer, a judge, and then a Supreme Court Justice, in that order.

For Rachel's and Sarah's mitzvah project, they sought the Jewish community to support the Pasadena's Jewish Temple and Center through monetary donations to help them in rebuilding their Temple. Rachel and Sarah have always been part of a Temple community, making long lasting friendships and having a Jewish home. They supported their Jewish friends of Pasadena and donated a portion of their Bat Mitzvah gifts to the Pasadena Jewish Temple and Center (PJTC) donation drive.
